

Start with an empty, sturdy pallet. Please make sure that no nails, splinters or sharp edges exist.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>

To add to the overall strength of the final pallet, add on a piece of cardboard or like material to the base.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>

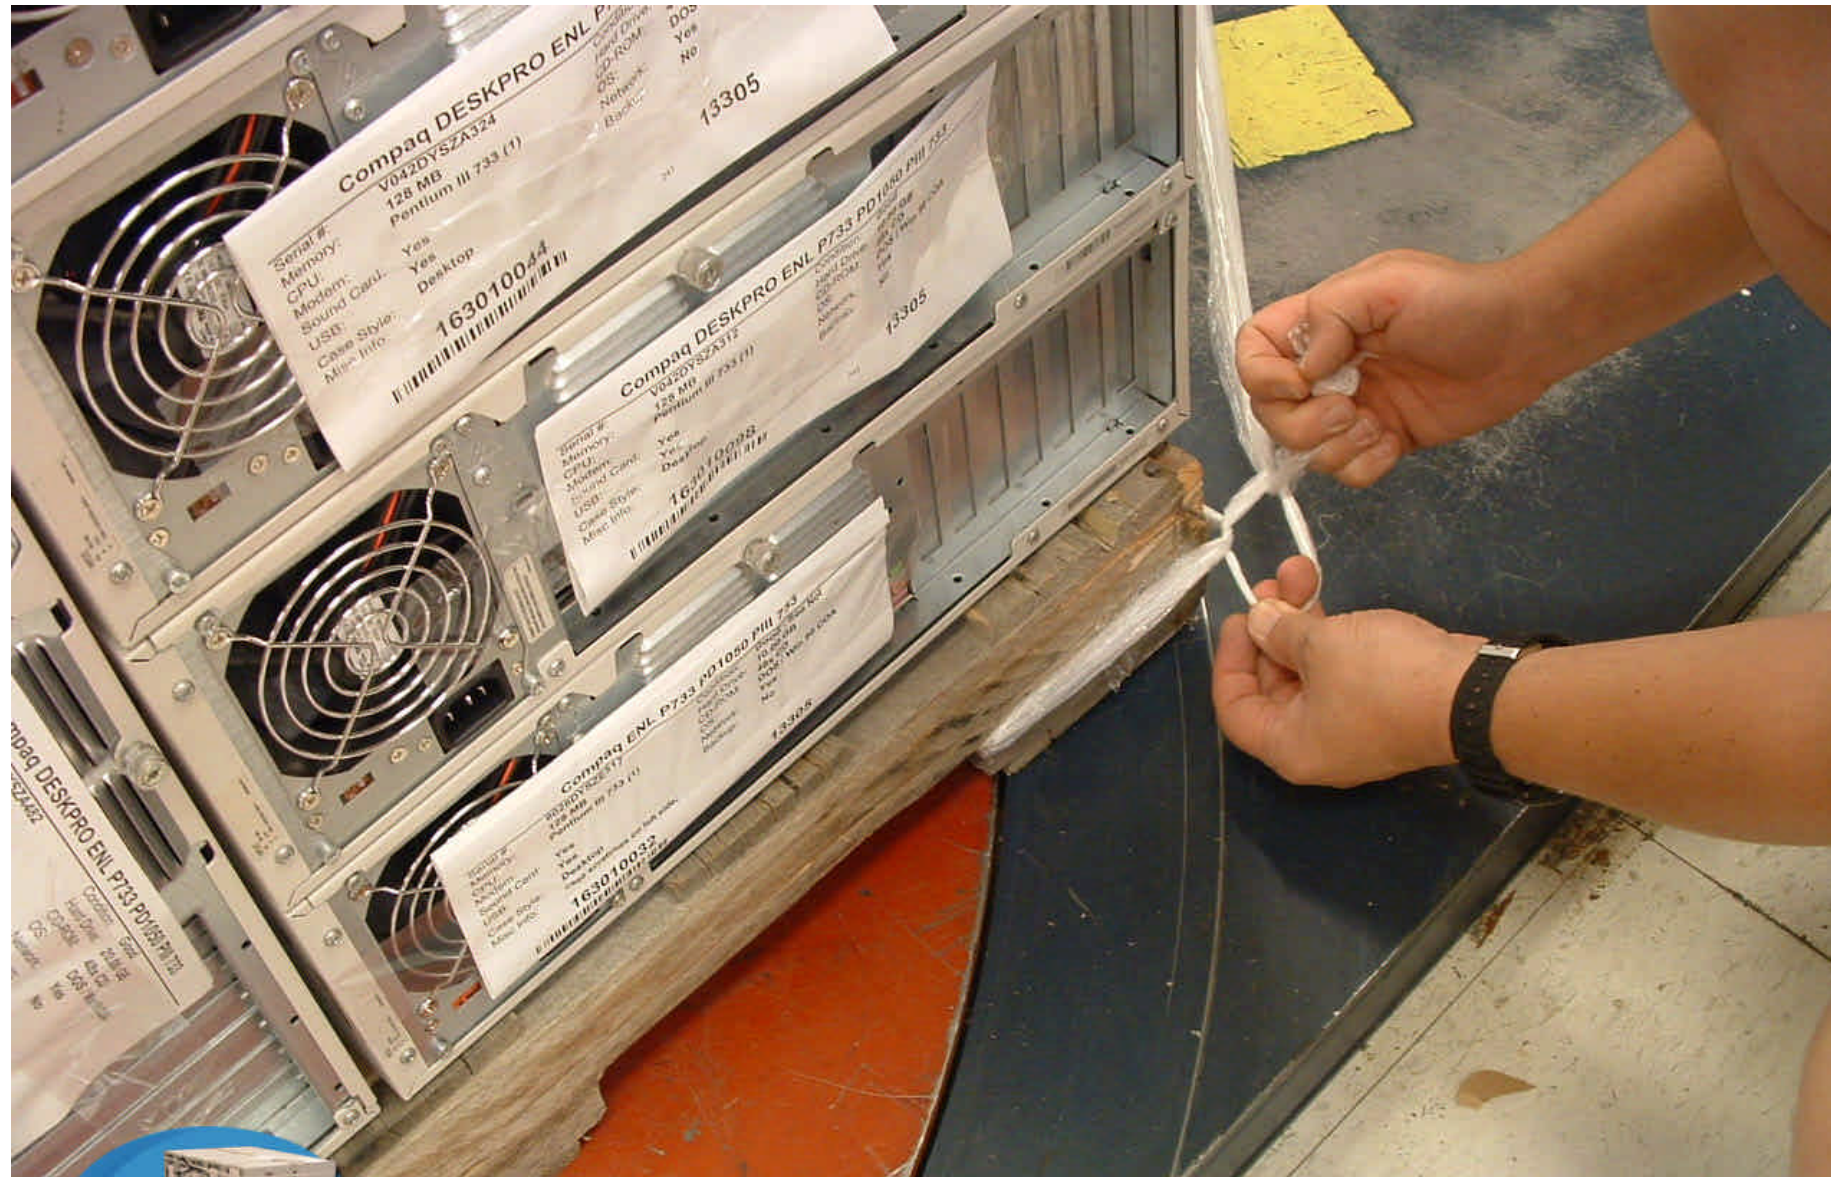

Stack tower systems and shown here. Always make sure to keep all contents inside the pallet border.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>

Use strapping tape to lash the top layer of systems together to help strengthen the overall package.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>

When applying plastic wrap, remember to start from the very base of the pallet to ensure overall strength.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>

When using plastic wrap, be sure to completely surround the pallet contents.

View this Guide Online: <http://www.csileasingservices.com/info/packing>